

Marble Creek-St Maries

(starting at Marble Creek Historical Site)

Provided by Friends of the Coeur d'Alene Trails www.friendsofcdatrails.org

Trout Creek Rd around barricaded bridge

Marble Creek-St Maries

(starting at Marble Creek Historical Site)

Provided by Friends of the Coeur d'Alene Trails www.friendsofcdatrails.org

Route Directions:

This ride starts at the Marble Creek Historical Site which is 35 miles east of St. Maries on the St Joe River Road. The Marble Creek Historical Site features accessible display shelters, 8 picnic sites, vault toilets, and potable water. Attractions include displays of early 1900s logging, photos, artifacts, and a replica logging flume. This bicycle route is not paved. The use of mountain bicycles or hybrids is recommended.

Mileage	Comments
0.0	Turn left out of the parking lot onto St Joe River Rd.
0.25	Turn right onto Northside Rd then take the bridge across the St Joe River.
0.5	Turn left onto Potlatch Rd. You are now on the Old Milwaukee RR right-of-way. This right-of-way continues into St. Maries.
4.6	Enter Tunnel 37, the Herrick Tunnel. This is a 515 ft long straight tunnel.
5.8	You cross over Big Creek. About 0.1 miles back was the town of Herrick.
9.8	You are at Calder Rd. About ¾ of a mile straight ahead is a bridge across Bear Creek. This bridge is barricaded at each end. You can lift your bicycle over each barricade and walk it across the bridge and continue on the RR right-of-way. This cue sheet will continue with an alternate route onto Trout Creek Rd for about 4 miles. No matter which route you take, visit the Calder Store for refreshments or a good meal.
9.8	Turn right onto Calder Rd.
9.9	Turn left onto 1 st Street.
10.1	Cross over the cattle guard onto Trout Creek Rd.
11.6	Trout Creek Rd becomes NFD 746
14.1	You will see a road on your left. Make a sharp left and continue on the switchback to the right back onto Potlatch Rd. This route is about 0.4 miles longer than following the RR right-of-way.
17.7	You are under the St Joe River Rd. Potlatch Rd goes up to the St Joe River Rd just past here. Continue straight on the RR right-of-way.
18.0	A skewed steel trestle crosses the St Joe River.
21.0	The cross road is St Joe City Rd. The RR right-of-way becomes Railroad Grade Rd.
32.4	You are now on Milwaukee Rd.
33.0	Turn right onto ID 3.
33.4	Continue straight on W College Ave. ID 3 turns right.
33.5	Turn right onto S 4 th .
33.6	Turn left onto Main Ave.
33.8	Arrive at the Pines Motel.

Herrick Tunnel

Burned bridge at Calder